II. News You Can Use

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA SUMMER CAMPUS OPEN TO AGES 15 TO 19

The University of South Carolina Summer Campus will run from July 10 – 23, 2011 and is open to 5–19 year-old students wanting to improve their English. The program costs $2,300 which includes English classes, all meals, on-campus housing, linens, and activities (shopping, bowling, sports, movies, and special trips). High school students will have the opportunity to improve their English through intensive classes, preview the American college experience, live in on-campus housing, and enjoy exciting field trips and other fun activities. They will also be able to live on-campus with American students and experience American culture firsthand.

English Classes will fit their level—whether beginning or advanced. Students will receive quality English instruction from experienced American high school teachers. Two exciting excursions to the Riverbanks Zoo and Charleston, S.C. are included as well.

For more information, please contact study@sc.edu.
The application form is available at: <http://www.ip.sc.edu/summercamp>.

YOUNG EXPLORERS GRANTS (YEG) OFFER OPPORTUNITIES TO AGES 18 TO 25

Young Explorers Grants (YEG) offer opportunities to individuals ages 18 to 25 to pursue research, conservation, and exploration-related projects consistent with National Geographic's existing grant programs, including: the Committee for Research and Exploration (CRE), the Expeditions Council (EC), and the Conservation Trust (CT).

The Young Explorers Grants Program supports a variety of projects—and an age-range of applicants—that are generally not covered by other sources of funding. Applicants are not required to have advanced degrees. However, a record of prior experience in the fields of research, conservation, or exploration should be submitted as it pertains to the proposed project. Funding is not restricted to United States citizens—foreign nationals are invited to apply. Researchers planning work in countries abroad should make great effort to include at least one local collaborator as part of their team.
