ATTRACTIVE BUSINESS & INNOVATION COLLEGE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO (OH)

The University of Toledo College of Business and Innovation has an excellent reputation in the United States! Established in 1930, the College is currently the largest professional college on the campus of The University of Toledo. It is also one of only 15 percent of business colleges around the world to receive accreditation from The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International). We take great pride in our student-friendly atmosphere and our state-of-the-art technology. The college currently houses four 24-hour computer labs, including a virtual lab where students can work with laptops outside the confines of a laboratory. All classrooms are multi-mediated and equipped with the latest wireless technology. In addition, the College of Business houses the John B. and Lillian E. Neff Trading Room which offers students access to financial data from around the globe in a real-world environment. Take a look at their Points of Pride.

GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY (DC) TO HOST GLOBAL WOMEN'S SUMMER INSTITUTE

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

WASHINGTON, DC

This July, GW will offer the Global Women's Summer Institute for undergraduate students, focused on issues of gender and the status of women around the world. Students enroll in two courses: one in-classroom, focused on global gender studies theory, and the second, an experiential learning opportunity where students learn how to run an advocacy campaign for a local organization. Students engage with local NGOs, political organizations and international institutions to get a truly in-depth, insider viewpoint of global gender issues. Applications open this week – see here for more information on how to apply: <http://summer.gwu.edu/global-women%e2%80%99s-summer-institute-gender-issues-and-activism-global-environment>.

The Global Women's Summer Institute is one of many programs in which international students can partake at The George Washington University this summer. With over 650 courses to choose from, specialized programs in gender and politics, as well as English for Academic Purposes classes, international students have a range of choices for academics, while also experiencing all that summer in Washington, DC has to offer. Applications for all programs are available as of this week: <http://summer.gwu.edu/apply>. Apply today!

PITTSBURG STATE UNIVERSITY (KS) OPENS MARCH 2014
INTENSIVE ENGLISH PROGRAM ENROLLMENT

The March session of IEP is 8-weeks, starting on March 6, 2014 and ending on May 9, 2014.

The tuition and fees for this one 8-week session is $2889. Additional expenses include living costs, insurance and books. On-campus housing and meal plans are available at an additional cost.

IEP students have full access to all campus facilities, services and events, including the Student Recreation Center and Student Health Services.

PSU will pick up IEP students free of charge from the Joplin Regional Airport (JLN) on March 3-5. Orientation will begin on March 6.

Students may apply online and pay the $50 non-refundable application fee.

The mission of the Intensive English Program at Pittsburg State University is to help international students to achieve their academic and professional goals through the development of their English language skills. All members of the Intensive English Program faculty hold at least a master's degree in teaching English as a foreign language. Many of the instructors have teaching experience both in the United States and overseas. Most faculty members have successfully mastered a foreign language, making them aware of the language learning process that their students face.

IEP offers sessions every 8-weeks, in January, March, June, August, and October. Classes are offered at six levels, from beginning to advanced.
