SOUTH DAKOTA STATE UNIVERSITY (SD) GIVES INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS OPPORTUNITY TO DEMONSTRATE CULTURE

SDSU International Night offers opportunity for students to demonstrate culture

More than 400 campus and community members celebrated SDSU International Night Nov. 17. Sponsored by SDSU International Affairs and the International Relations Council, International Night is held to bring individuals together to appreciate the traditions of other cultures and the international individuals who make up the community. More than 550 students and scholars from more than 70 countries currently reside in the SDSU and larger Brookings community.

The night kicked off with a parade of nations featuring individual students showcasing the flags from their home countries. Dinner was served and included a variety of international dishes such as raita, egg pancake, potato and cauliflower curry, Moroccan chicken and biryani.

The cultural program included a Nepali rock band, a Chinese comedian, educational presentations, a step dance routine by the Black Student Alliance, a group of Bollywood dancers, a Spanish soloist, and cultural dances of China, Sri Lanka, Spain and India. The program concluded with a fashion show, showcasing cultural dress from India to China, South America to Europe.

PITTSBURG STATE UNIVERSITY (KS) HOSTS BAJA SAE COMPETITION

Pittsburg State University to host Baja SAE competition

Officials from Pittsburg State University and the City of Pittsburg gathered on Thursday to announce that PSU will once again host Baja SAE – Kansas. The event, which will draw thousands of competitors from across the U.S. and numerous other countries, is set for May 22-25, 2014.

“We are very excited to once again host this important event,” said PSU President Steve Scott. “Hosting Baja SAE – Kansas allows us to showcase our university and our community for visitors from around the world. The fact that PSU was chosen to host the event just three years after hosting it for the first time is a testament to the strong spirit of cooperation between the university and the community.”

The competition will attract 100 teams from universities across the globe including those from Egypt, Canada, Mexico, South Korea, Argentina, Venezuela, Bangladesh and India.

Baja SAE consists of competitions that simulate real-world engineering design projects and their related challenges. Engineering students are tasked with designing and building an off-road vehicle that will survive the severe punishment of rough terrain. The competition involves designing, planning and manufacturing.
