FAIRLEIGH DICKINSON UNIVERSITY INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Fairleigh Dickinson University is a center of academic excellence dedicated to the preparation of world citizens through global education. The University strives to provide students with the multi-disciplinary, intercultural, and ethical understandings necessary to participate, lead, and prosper in the global marketplace of ideas, commerce and culture.

The Colonel Fairleigh Dickinson Scholarship awards between $11,000 to $25,000 per year to qualified, first-time international undergraduate freshmen. Consideration for this award is based on academic merit and SAT scores. A minimum of the equivalent of a 3.0 g.p.a. and an SAT (Critical Reading + Math) score of 1050 or higher are required.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL SERVICE FULBRIGHT APPLICATION FEE WAIVER

The School of International Service (SIS) at American University is committed to a broad and interdisciplinary approach to the study of international relations that values public service, environmental stewardship, human rights, and social justice.

In our continued effort to support the Fulbright program and its scholars, SIS will now waive the $50 application fee for master's and PhD applications from any Fulbright scholar. The $50 application fee is also waived for any non-sponsored student who is the first person in his/her family to attend university.

In the case of sponsored students, when the applicant/organization proceeds to the end of the online application and is prompted to pay, please choose the "check" option and alert us via email that this is for a sponsored applicant, so that we can waive the fee in our system. In the case of first-generation college students, there is a question on the application that asks if you are a first-generation college student. If yes, the application fee will be automatically waived.
