PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY OFFERS NEW LL.M. AND LEGAL ENGLISH PROGRAMS

Pepperdine University will be offering two new programs this upcoming year, including a new LL.M. with a Concentration in International Commercial Arbitration (ICA) starting this Fall and a legal English training program this summer. The ICA Concentration is a 28 unit (1 year) LLM program and includes six new International Commercial Arbitration courses. Students will have the opportunity to learn from distinguished guest practitioners from Jones Day, Freshfields, King & Spalding, and other major law firms.

The Legal English Gateway Program (Gateway) is a four-week training program for international attorneys and judges and is designed to strengthen legal speaking, listening, reading and writing abilities for non-native speakers. The program will cover topics in legal research and writing, US legal vocabulary and concepts, plus advanced reading, writing and grammar. The Gateway program will also provide participants an opportunity to visit Los Angeles Superior Court, JAMS and meet with lawyers specializing in International Law practice. The summer Gateway program is a perfect preparatory course for students starting an LLM program in the Fall.
