LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO (IL) LLM PROGRAM SCHOLARSHIPS FOR INTERNATIONAL LAWYERS

Loyola University Chicago School of Law announces three new merit-based scholarships for international LLM students. The Office of Foreign and International LLM Programs joins forces with the Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies, the Dan K. Webb Center for Advocacy, and the Civitas ChildLaw Center to offer these tuition-reduction scholarships to students in the LLM Program for International Lawyers. The scholarships are available for the academic year 2014/15; classes begin in August 2014.

The Consumer Antitrust Scholarship is a 60% tuition-reduction scholarship. The reduced tuition for the one-year program amounts to $13,536 (full tuition: $33,840). The selected recipient will be part of the full activities and events of the Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies, and will work closely with Institute Faculty to develop a tailored curriculum in international law with a focus in competition law.

Application deadline: March 15, 2014.

The Civitas Child & Family Law Scholarship is a 40% tuition-reduction scholarship. The reduced tuition for the one-year program amounts to $20,304 (full tuition: $33,840). The selected recipient will be part of the full activities and events of the Civitas ChildLaw Center, and will work closely with Center Faculty to develop a tailored curriculum in international law with a focus in Child and Family law. Application deadline: April 15, 2014.

The Dispute Resolution International Scholarship is a 40% tuition-reduction scholarship. The reduced tuition for the one-year program amounts to $20,304 (full tuition: $33,840). The selected recipient will be part of the full activities and events of the Dispute Resolution Program of the Dan K. Webb Center for Advocacy, and will work closely with Center Faculty to develop a tailored curriculum in international law with a focus in alternative dispute resolution, including arbitration, negotiation, and mediation. Application deadline: April 15, 2014.

The Office of Foreign and International LLM Programs also offers a General Scholarship for exceptionally qualified students in either track of the LLM Program for International Lawyers. Please contact Insa Blanke, Executive Director of Foreign and International LLM Programs, at iblanke1@luc.edu to discuss any questions regarding the application and the program.

SIENA HEIGHTS UNIVERSITY (MI) SUMMER COURSES

Siena Heights University is pleased to announce that tuition rates for ground-based College of Arts and Sciences classes for the Summer 2014 session in Adrian have been reduced by 45 percent. Instead of paying $460 per credit hour, if you enroll in summer classes at the Adrian campus this summer, you will pay only $250 per credit hour. All applicable fees, including the technology fee, will be charged at the normal rate. The reduced tuition rate does not apply to totally online classes. In addition, if you are not a Lenawee County resident and you need a place to stay on campus this summer while taking summer classes, you may stay in the Campus Village at the reduced rate of $300 per six-week session, $400 per eight-week session, or $600 for both six-week sessions. Students will be responsible for paying all utilities. Yes, that's only $50 per week plus utilities to stay on campus while taking classes at greatly reduced tuition rates. The listing of Summer 2014 CAS classes will be available through the MySiena web site on March 3. I invite you to take advantage of this offer of quality education at an affordable price this summer.
