TULANE LAW SCHOOL (LA) TUITION WAIVERS

Tulane Law School, located in New Orleans, Louisiana, is uniquely positioned to prepare students with an exposure to the common law tradition, practiced throughout much of the United States, as well as the civil law tradition. Tulane seeks to recruit qualified law students with diverse backgrounds from around the world.

This opportunity provides students who are admitted to a Tulane Law School LLM program for the 2014-15 academic year with a minimum $20,000 tuition waiver with potential for the waiver to approach full tuition. The program has the following guidelines:

1. Tulane Law School (New Orleans, Louisiana) offers tuition waivers to students who are being advised at your center and seek to pursue a Master of Laws (LL.M.) degree at Tulane University Law School during the 2014-15 academic year. The tuition waiver is awarded to students who are admitted to Tulane Law and are nominated by you or your colleagues. To nominate a student, e-mail a letter of recommendation to Heather Marinaro at hmarinar@tulane.edu or mail the letter to Tulane Law School, Office of Admission – Graduate Programs, 6329 Freret Street, New Orleans, LA 70118.
2. Tulane Law will make award decisions based upon the nominations presented by the EducationUSA advisors.

This tuition waiver will be dispersed as follows: Half of the amount to be credited to the fall 2014 semester and half of the amount to be credited to the spring 2015 semester. This represents the full extent of scholarship funding students should expect to be offered from Tulane Law. Please follow the link below to learn more about our graduate law programs. LLM application deadline: May 1, 2014.

WESTERN WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY (WA) HOSTS GLOBAL GOURMETS DINNER

Western Washington University international students worked with the university chef and catering staff to create authentic dishes from their home countries at the Global Gourmets Dinner on Thursday, March 6.

Organized by the Center for International Studies, International Student and Scholar Services, and University Catering, the evening featured a six-course tasting menu with dishes from Finland, Bhutan, Korea, Japan, Mongolia, and Saudi Arabia. Six students presented their food and culture to an audience of university administrators, faculty, and students. This celebration of Western's international students also included performances by a student jazz quintet and a well-known Lummi Nation violinist and storyteller. The collaboration served to highlight the diverse perspectives and experiences that international students bring to Western.

International Student and Scholar Services supports international students at Western Washington University, providing assistance with immigration advising, practical matters, and social and cultural adjustment. ISSS also works to promote cross-cultural exchange throughout the University community. International students may begin their studies at Western Washington University in Fall, Winter, or Spring quarters.
