FELICIAN COLLEGE FRESHMAN AND TRANSFER MERIT-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

Felician College is an independent, co-educational Catholic/Franciscan College and the only Franciscan college in New Jersey. Founded and sponsored by the Felician Sisters, Felician was established in 1942 to educate a diverse population of students within the framework of a liberal arts education. Felician College is located on a safe, beautiful campus in Northern New Jersey, just 10 miles outside New York City.

Felician College is still accepting applications for the Fall 2013 semester. Students who apply at this can still be considered for our International Scholarships and Awards for freshman and undergraduate transfer applicants. Scholarships range from $4,500 up to $15,000 per year for students. Students are automatically considered for a scholarship upon admission. Felician offers financial aid to over 80% of its applicants. Scholarships are based on a holistic review of a student's application. SAT's are not required from international students, but those that take the SAT's can qualify for our higher scholarship awards.

HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS

Heidelberg's home is Tiffin, OH. We have over 1,200 traditional undergraduates and 200 plus graduate students. Our students come from all over the country and the world. Heidelberg was established in 1850 by the German Reformed Church (now United Church of Christ). Heidelberg's mascot, the Student Prince, is named after a German operetta of the same name and our school colors are from Germany's flag used to represent the German and Dutch Reformed Church. Today, the University retains these connections through a unique study abroad program with its namesake city – Heidelberg, Germany.

The Heidelberg School of Business will waive the Enrollment Fee ($600) for fall 2013 applicants. There is no application fee for the online applications submitted at www.heidelberg.edu. This policy is applicable for both Graduate and Undergraduate Admissions applications. Heidelberg University offers generous scholarships in the amount of $8,000 per year for the qualified undergraduate international students. The Heidelberg School of Business offers competitive MBA Program Tuition Scholarships in the range of $2,000-6,000.

DEPAUL UNIVERSITY MERIT AND NEED-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

DePaul University, located in Chicago Illinois, is a Catholic private university with nearly 300 graduate and undergraduate programs and concentrations. With just 70 students when it was founded in 1898, DePaul has grown to become the nation's largest Catholic university. DePaul, named for St. Vincent de Paul, has maintained its commitment to serve students who might otherwise be denied a quality education, from turn-of-the-century women and returning veterans to first-generation, low-income city residents. Our urban, multicultural perspective has led to innovative programs and a hands-on learning approach that reflects our deep ties throughout Chicago and a growing international influence.

The generosity of our donors allows DePaul to provide numerous scholarships to students who exhibit academic, merit, financial need, strong leadership and service to their communities. We value the commitment of these donors to DePaul and our students. We invite you to view a list of scholarships made possible by our benefactors.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY MBA MERIT-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

Willamette is a nationally renowned, highly selective private liberal arts university in Salem, Oregon. Founded in 1842, Willamette is the first university established in the western U.S. and has become a national leader in sustainability and civic engagement.

The Atkinson School Scholarship awards and named scholarship awards are competitive and merit based. Most scholarships are awarded upon admission to the MBA program and are renewable for the second year of study for MBA students who meet all renewal requirements. MBA/JD students who receive scholarship assistance from the MBA program receive the scholarship only for the first academic year in which they are enrolled full-time in the MBA program. Atkinson scholarships awarded to MBA/JD students are not renewable.
