TEXAS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

Established in 1890, Texas Wesleyan University is a United Methodist institution that integrates the liberal arts and sciences with professional and career training. With a 14-to-1 student-to-faculty ratio, you'll learn on a first name basis with gifted professors who will challenge you to achieve your best. Just as important, they have the time and resources to make sure you're up to the challenge.

When submitting your free application, you are automatically considered for a number of undergraduate scholarships available to international students ranging from $3,000-$10,000 per year. The scholarship program will reduce your tuition to anywhere from $5,420 USD to $8,920 USD, for up to 18 credit hours per semester.

FELICIAN COLLEGE MERIT BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

Located in New Jersey, Felician College exposes students to a well-rounded education that helps develop their critical skills. Explore your interests, discover your calling then pursue your degree in business, education, nursing, arts or sciences. The college also offers programs throughout the state in partnership with community colleges, hospitals and local businesses, making a Felician education accessible to a wider audience.

Over 95% of the college's incoming international undergraduate students receive a scholarship award. Academic scholarships are awarded based on a holistic review of all qualifications, including grades, standardized test scores, extra-curricular activities, and overall potential to succeed. Students are automatically considered for a scholarship upon admission.

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE UNIVERSITY INTERNATIONAL ORIENTATION KICKS-OFF FALL SEMESTER

South Dakota State University welcomed 160 new international students to campus this fall. Students participated in a three-day Orientation event, featuring sessions to help prepare for life at SDSU and in the United States. Topics included language support, money and banking, immigration, and a round-table discussion on American culture.

"Orientation is such a great opportunity to make connections with new students!" says Kirsten Linke, graduate assistant for international affairs.

More than 70 different countries are currently represented within the SDSU student population; from Algeria to Malaysia, Croatia to Switzerland, Pakistan to Colombia, Australia to Bangladesh and beyond. Since fall 2012, the total international student population has increased by more than 20%.

Applications are now being accepted for spring semester which begins January 2014. The Office of International Affairs is the hub for international student services and undergraduate admissions, study abroad planning and community connections programs.
